Jessica Do is an Associate at Ropers Majeski Kohn & Bentley in the Business and Commercial Litigation, Professional Liability, and Real Estate practice groups in the firm's Los Angeles office. Ms. Do focuses her practice on a wide range of litigation matters involving insurance bad faith and coverage, breach of contract, and general business and commercial litigation.

Ms. Do graduated from UC Hastings College of the Law in San Francisco, California where she served as Co-chair of the nationally ranked Hastings Moot Court Team. As a student, Ms. Do competed in the Traynor Moot Court Competition, Thomas Tang Moot Court Competition, and National Moot Court Competition. Ms. Do also served as a Notes Editor for the Hastings Law Journal in her last two years of law school.

During law school, Ms. Do worked as a Judicial Extern for the Los Angeles Superior Court where she gained insight into our judicial system. Ms. Do also worked as a Law Clerk assisting in litigation matters for a mid-sized law firm based in Orange County prior to law school.

Ms. Do obtained a Bachelor of the Arts in both Psychology and Criminology from the University of California, Irvine.
